Class 121: Queen Elizabeth Memorial Cake

CAKE INGREDIENTS: 160g chopped dates, 1/2 tsp bicarbonate soda, 125g softened unsalted butter, 230g caster sugar, 1 egg, 1 tsp vanilla extract, 280g self raising flour

TOPPING INGREDIENTS: 60g unsalted butter, 65ml cream, 95g soft brown sugar, 90g shredded coconut

METHOD

1. Pre heat oven to 180°C. Line and lightly grease 20cm square cake tin.

2. Put dates and bicarbonate of soda in a bowl. Add 1 cup of boiling water, stir to combine and set aside for 15 mins, stirring often until the dates have softened and absorbed most of the water.

3. Beat butter and sugar with electric beater until pale and creamy. Add the egg and vanilla and beat until combined. Add half the flour and half of the date mixture and beat to combine then add the remaining flour and date mixture and combine. Spoon into prepared tin and bake for 45-50 mins, until golden on top. It's cooked when a skewer comes out dry and clean. Remove cake from oven and leave in tin whilst preparing topping.

4. For topping, put butter, cream, brown sugar and half of coconut in a small saucepan and cook on medium heat until just combined. Pour evenly over top of cake and sprinkle over remaining coconut. Cook under hot grill until coconut is golden.

All exhibits should be entered in the name of the owner of the garden or allotment from which the exhibit came and they should sign the entry form in the place provided for the exhibitors signature. Exhibits staged by a professional gardener but belonging to their employer should be entered in the employer's name.

H5. Number of entries per household. Unless otherwise stated in the schedule, two or more persons may not compete separately in the same class with produce from the same garden and/or allotment. If members of a family wish to share the credit and prizes then the exhibits should be entered in joint names.

H6. The ripeness of fruit; Apples, pears and gooseberries may be shown either ripe or unripe. All other fruits must be ripe, unless otherwise specified in the schedule. Over-ripeness will be regarded as a defect in any fruit.

H7. Judges may be required to cut fruit and vegetables for inspection or when competition is close.

H8. Fruits classified as vegetables. The following, though botanically classified as fruits, are for the purposes of this show classified as vegetables: Aubergines, Beans, Capsicums (Sweet Peppers), Chilli Peppers, Courgettes, Cucumbers, Marrows, Mushrooms, Okra, Peas, Pumpkins, Sweet Corn and Tomatoes.

H9. The size of pots; The diameter of a pot is the inside measurement, made as close to the top as possible.

H10. Stems to reach below the water; In all classes where cut material is shown, all stems must reach below the water in the vase or other receptacle.

H11. The naming of exhibits. All exhibits should be correctly named. Errors in naming will not disqualify the entry, but judges should regard correctness and clearness of naming as telling in favour of an exhibit in a close competition. If the exhibitor does not know the name of any cultivar (variety) the label should bear the words NAME UNKNOWN.

H12. Root vegetables such as carrots, parsnips and beetroot should have the tops trimmed to about 3 inches and tied with raffia or soft twine. Onion tops should also be trimmed and tied in a similar manner.

H13. All fruit except Peaches & Nectarines should be shown with stalks & calyces intact.

H14. As of 2024 green foam Oasis will not be permitted and environmentally friendly alternatives must be used.

Thank you

... to all our sponsors (see inside back cover).

Also to the exhibitors and the attending public for your support in helping to make your town show a success.

Without you, it could not happen. Long may it continue.

Want to be a sponsor?

If you have goods or services to sell or just feel community minded, why not become a regular sponsor and add your name to our sponsor list. Donations would be gratefully received and need not cost you a fortune.

For further details email littlehamptontownshow@gmail.com

Want to get involved?

Everyone is welcome to exhibit. If you are interested but have queries, a committee member would be happy to assist.

Also, we are always keen for new members on our committee.

Please get in touch if you are interested.
